DONATIONS

You may wish to consider making a voluntary donation to BAAL in addition to your subscription. Voluntary donations enable us to maintain and enhance the benefits BAAL offers to the applied linguistics community. In accordance with BAAL's charitable status, we consistently strive to support less well-resourced members of our community (for example through scholarships, including the Chris Brumfit Conference Scholarship, and concessionary membership and event fees), and to support professional development and research activities that enhance the quality and reach of our work and its applications in real world contexts.
